Here are a few of the primary topics Slingshot25 presents. If you're interested in a leadership/change topic not on the list, let us know.

Presentation Topics
You're Just Not That Big a Deal When it comes to the workplace, employees and leaders often get in their own way by worrying about what others will think or believing they need to know it all. This talk uncovers what prevents you from doing work that matters or leading in a way that unlocks the potential of others. Learn five things that will make you think differently about how you show up every day.
Lead So Others (Want to) Follow This talk focuses on the often-forgotten and surprising truth at the core of leadership. Learn three ideas that will change the way you lead forever.
Stop Killing Accountability This talk tells the story of why the simple concept of accountability is so hard to achieve. You will discover the top ways leaders kill accountability and how you can stop these behaviors from undermining your effectiveness as a leader.
The Art of Resilience In this fun and interactive session, we reflect on the importance of resilience as an essential skill for success in today's world of persistent change. Learn to discern between dysfunctional persistence and true resilience, examine three practices of resilient people, and take home some helpful tools for gaining perspective on staying resilient in the face of everyday stress and significant challenges.
Coaching: The Secret Skill that Changes Everything We discuss the common misperceptions of coaching, explain what coaching is and what it isn't, and how learning to coach can feel like a new superpower for leaders. Also, participants will discover the three core coaching skills they can use right now!
Leading Through Change Change management is more than a comm plan, it requires great leadership and an understanding of how change impacts people. This talk shows you how ignoring the "people side" of change can derail your transformation and how to avoid making some all-too-common mistakes.
Get Decision Alignment or Get Derailed Managing changes effectively starts with a business decision. And, if you're not on the same page from the start, you'll waste valuable time and money trying to get there. This session shares the common derailers and the steps to take to stay on course.
The Change Equation Every person touched by change will react based on their personal thoughts and feelings - even when those thoughts and feelings seem hopelessly irrational. This session teaches us about the change experience - how decision-making impacts what people will experience, what we can anticipate about people's reactions to change, and what we can do about it.
